15 December 2006

Dear (Trisha, fyi, our December letter)

Thank you for your interest in joining the "Florida Chinese Competition 2007," which will be held at the Reitz Union on the University of Florida campus. Cheng-mei Rothschild and I look forward to seeing you and your students on March 30th and 31st.

Enclosed is our schedule for the two-day event, as well as the student application form and meal choice form for the hosted meals. As you know from Cheng-mei, we must limit the participation to no more than 10 students from each school. Please collect your students' application forms and their registration fees of $20 per student (the check should be made out to: "University of Florida Foundation") and mail these back to me. Also, please indicate your meal choices for the teachers' reception and dinner on Friday evening, and for the box lunch for Saturday. I would appreciate having these by January 31.

Upon receiving your applications, Cheng-mei and I will work out the room assignments for each event (Writing, Reading, Speaking, at the four levels). At that time I will also send you the "group code number" to make your reservations at the Holiday Inn University Center, 1250 West University Avenue, which conveniently located across the street from the UF campus. We have booked a block of 60 rooms for the competition. Each room has two double beds and sleeps up to four persons. We negotiated a flat rate of $90 per room regardless of the number of occupants (if your school has a tax-exempt number, supplied when making your reservation, your rooms will be exempt from the 9.25% room tax). If you would like further information about the hotel's facilities, please call 352-376-1661 or visit their web site at <http://www.holiday-inn.com/gnv-university>.

I will send you further details and maps after receiving your applications in January. Meanwhile, please feel free to contact me at cchenna@aall.ufl.edu if you have any questions or, if your questions concern the content of the events, please contact Cheng-mei at RothschildL@Bolles.org.

Cordially yours,

Cynthia L. Chennault
